

PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME
SOUTH AFRICAN KANGAROO MOTHER CARE WORKSHOP, 11-13 MARCH 2018

Theme: Kangaroo Mother Care: Pathways to Sustainability

SUNDAY, 11 March 2018
16:30-18:45	SESSION 1 – Action on small newborn care: the bigger picture			Chair: Natasha Rhoda
16:30-16:50	Welcome and introduction		Mitzi Franken (or other SAKMCF representative)
16:50-17:10	Saving newborn lives: a call to action		Manala Makua, National Department of Health
17:10-17:30	The Every Newborn Action Plan – a global perspective		Tedbabe Hailegebriel, UNICEF, New York
17:30-17:50	Macro initiatives for the global acceleration of KMC implementation		Judith MCCord, PCI / Every Preemie-Scale Wahida Siraj, Save the Children
17:50-18:10	Kangaroo mother care: summary of the current evidence		Nils Bergman, South Africa
18:10-18:30	Addressing barriers and enablers for successful KMC implementation		Thomas Brune, Sweden
18:30-18:45	Introduction to posters		Sebotse Ngake, Vanessa Booysen, Manala Makua, Jocelyn Asibey, Tahir Manzoor, Judith Robb-McCord, Sethy Ghanashyam (South Africa, Ghana, Malawi, Papua New Guinea)
19:00	DINNER
MONDAY, 12 March 2018
08:00-10:00	SESSION 2 – Introduction to kangaroo mother care implementation, scale-up and quality improvement			Chair: Makua Manala
	Plenary
08:00-08:15	Implementation, scale-up and quality improvement – what does it mean for KMC?		Anne-Marie Bergh
08:15-08:30	Creating a KMC culture		Marika Brandt Brune. Sweden
08:30-10:00	Working groups:
	2.1. Barriers and enablers in KMC implementation – lessons from different contexts (Facilitator/s: TBC)	2.2. Training and mentoring in KMC implementation and scale-up – lessons from different contexts (Facilitator/s: TBC)	2.3. Changing the working culture in my health facility (Facilitator: Marika Brandt Brune) (12-16 persons)	2.4. KMC practice workshop (running a KMC unit) (Elise van Rooyen) (Max 40 persons)
10:00-10:30	TEA
10:30-12:30	SESSION 3 – Kangaroo mother care implementation and scale-up			Chair:
	Plenary
10:30-10:40	Overcoming challenges in implementing KMC at scale: lessons from early implementation in five districts of Bangladesh		Wahida Siraj, Save the Children, Bangladesh
10:40-10:50	The Kangaroo babies of Kakamega: Kangaroo Mother Care and the drastic reduction in new-born deaths in Kakamega County, Kenya		Lutomia Mangala, UNICEF Kenya
10:50-11:00	Establishing and operating a kangaroo mother care unit with intermediate care facilities in Ghana		Rita Fosu Yeboa, Kumasi South Hospital, Ghana
11:10-12:30	Working groups:
	3.1. Experiences of scaling up KMC – integrating KMC into the health system and linking with other programmes (e.g. MBFI, 1 st 1000 days) (Facilitator/s: TBC)	3.2. Models of KMC implementation and lessons from innovative ways of overcoming constraints (Facilitator/s: TBC)	3.3. Changing the working culture in my health facility (Facilitator: Marika Brandt Brune) (repeat) (12-16 persons)	2.4. KMC practice workshop (continued)
12:30-13:30	LUNCH
13:30-15:30	SESSION 4 – Quality improvement in kangaroo mother care			Chair:
	Plenary
13:30-13:40	The nine standards of quality improvement for the “Every Mother, Every Newborn” strategy in maternal and newborn health		Agnes Kosia, UNICEF, Tanzania

13:40-13:50	Quality improvement in kangaroo mother care (Cameroon)		Odette Guifo Noutchogouin, Fondation Kangourou Cameroun
13 :50-14 :00	Implementation and scale-up of KMC in Dr RSM District, North West, South Africa		Joyce Mareverwa
14:00-15:30	Working groups:
	4.1. Designing a facility-based KMC quality improvement programme (Facilitator/s: TBC)	4.2. Designing a health systems quality improvement programme for KMC (Facilitator/s: TBC)	4.3. Changing the working culture in my health facility (Facilitator: Marika Brandt Brune) (repeat) (12-16 persons)
			4.4. KMC practice workshop (running a KMC unit) (repeated) (Elise van Rooyen) (Max 40 persons)
15:30-16:00	TEA
16:00-18:00	SESSION 5 – Sustaining kangaroo mother care		Chair:
	Plenary:
16:00-16:10	Pointers towards sustainability		Anne-Marie Bergh
16:10-16:20	Using the Family-Led Care model in Malawi to improve quality and sustain KMC		Judith RobbMcCord
16:20-16:30	The KMC Unit ... A home away from home		Vanessa Booyesen
16:30-18:00	Working groups:
	5.1. Monitoring and evaluation – how do we get KMC on records and into reports? (Facilitator/s: TBC)	5.2. Conditions for sustaining KMC in health facilities and in the health system (Facilitator/s: TBC)	5.3. Continuous support for mothers in a KMC unit (Facilitator/s: TBC)
			4.4. KMC practice workshop (continued)
19:00	DINNER
TUESDAY, 13 March 2018
08:00-10:00	SESSION 6 – Feedback plenary		Chair:
08:00-08:30	KMC practice workshops – main issues		Elise van Rooyen & others
08:30-10:00	Feedback other workshops and working groups		Working group rapporteurs
10:00-10:30	TEA
10:30-12:00	SESSION 7 – The way forward – group work and plenary		Facilitator:
10:30-11:30	Lessons, take-home messages, action plans and report back
11:30-11:45	Summative summary		Lucy Linley
11:45-12:00	Workshop evaluation & closure
12:00	LUNCH

www.perinatalpriorities.co.za

POSTER PRESENTATIONS:

The New Road to Health Booklet	Sebotse Ngake
Maternal and family experience on managing premature baby	Manala Makua
Adaptation after birth Helping Babies Breathe... the “WHY” behind the steps in the HBB Action Plan	Vanessa Booyesen
Retrospective study on outcome of KMC for preterm babies at Eastern Regional Hospital, Ghana	Jocelyn Asibey
Experience of kangaroo mother care in Services Hospital Lahore, Pakistan	Tahir Manzoor
Family-Led Care: empowering health care providers and families for improved preterm/low birth weight newborn outcomes	Judith Robb-McCord
A randomized case-control trial of a Hypothermia Alert Device in low birth weight newborns and the effect on kangaroo mother care (KMC) and weight gain in two provinces of Papua New Guinea	Sethy Ghanashy